Antonis Kapnisis

Solo show

Raft

DL Gallery presents on Saturday 1st of April the solo show of Antonis Kapnisis, titled Raft, which encapsulates the artist's years of research and his aesthetic and theoretical endeavors. Through an ascetic process, Kapnisis's painting intersects with the techniques of drawing and engraving, raising questions about the limits and possibilities of the visual act itself.

Large-scale drawings compositions and small acrylic paintings on wood form an optical Universe in which the visitor is invited to immerse himself. Whether open landscapes with architectural compositions or utopian constructions with enigmatic labyrinths and bizarre folds, ambiguity, and ambivalence dominate Kapnisis's black-and-white world.

Finally, with the exhibition Raft, the Greek visual artist aims to show that painting is primarily a spiritual and intellectual process; a process through which he explores philosophical and ontological issues on which the viewer is invited to rethink.
